

KINDNESS

Cavendish

The one that showed me kindness
Was the one that taught me kindness
 Though I did not recognize it
Still I might have died without it
 And when I awakened
 It was too late to thank her
 If I live someday
 I'll make repayment
And show someone the kindness
 She showed me
When my voice grows strident
 When I feel important
I'm reminded of that kindness
 And where I'd be without it
 I'm learning my lessons
 It may take me a lifetime
 Give me strength
 To justify my being
 Shown to me
