

Five Fleas

Rasputina

Five fleas band together against all odds to form a new company.

A new company, performing treachery, translations, advice to givers, and other varied services.

Starting in new business in any climate is always very very difficult.

But these stars had charisma, had it, the extra x-quotient, the pure, unadulterated scheltsbar that put them head and shoulders above the rest.

What they lacked, however, was backing. So if you know anybody that can help them out.....
