

He's Gone

Leona Naess

He has gone like meaning from a song
He is gone like a vampire in the sun
Apologies, but no 'Thank You's' please
He is gone like a bullet from a gunSo my wheels are turning
And this heart is yearningOh, daddy give me one more chance
At least another dance across the floor
Spin me round and throw me up
And push me down, oh, throw me back
But pull me up close to your heartHe has gone like a teenager from home
When's been spun
And the funeral march
Has been sungAnd the wheels are turning
And my hearts are burningOh, daddy give me one more chance
At least another dance, across the floor
Spin me round and throw me up
And push me down, oh, throw me back
But pull me up close to your heartOh, throw me down and pull me up
Crash into me and then break apart
Throw me down
But pull me up close to your heartFollow my eyes across the room
You drunken groom
What a surprise
Music stopped the issue has droppedIf you go then I go
If you throw then I throw
But you know and I know
I just can't dance with anyoneNow, throw me down or pull me back
Crash into me and then break apart
Pull me up
Just pull me up close to your heartThrow me down and pull me up
Crash into me and then fall apart
Pull me up
Just pull me up close to your heartHe is gone
He is gone
He is gone
