

Note To Self

Ben Rector

Note to self, clean the living room
Do the things you don't wanna do
Maybe fold that week old pile of clothes
Note to self, get some exercise
Feels bad but you have to try
But as far as I can tell, that's how life goes
Note to self, don't let yourself worry quite as much
It'll end up fine enough, it always has up until now
Something else, you should think of other people a little more
You should've thought of that before
Cause of everything you've written down,
This is the first note that you've wrote for someone else
Note to self
Note to self, keep choosing her
Cause she's yours and wonderful and
Forever is a long time to be sad
And one more thing, call your mother back
Talk for too long, it's probably half of What she'd like, she's the only mother that you have
Oh and don't let yourself worry quite as much
It'll end up fine enough, it always has up until now
Something else, you should think of other people a little more
You should've thought of that before
Cause of everything you've written down,
This is the first note that you've wrote for someone else
Note to self
I don't know how long I have to keep reminding myself
To be who I wanna be and not somebody else
Just thought by now I'd figure out the who and how I wanna be Because I still let myself worry way too much
Maybe it ends up fine enough, it always has and does still now
I still need to think of other people more
Yes I've thought of that before, maybe one day I'll figure out
You don't find peace till you love somebody else
You don't find peace until you love somebody else
Note to self
