

Sucking Your Blood

Mercyful Fate

I can see it in your mystery eyes
I can feel it on your breath tonight
The yearning for time
The yearning for eternal life Oh, oh, oh
Sucking your blood
Oh, oh, oh Let me look you deep in the eyes
Let me look into your mind
Let me take you to a room full of life
Let me, let me, let me suck your wine Oh, oh, oh
Sucking your blood
Oh, oh, oh
Sucking you, sucking your blood A chandelier is our source of light
I'm breathing in the colder air tonight
Time is right, it's your innocent skin I like Oh, oh, oh
Sucking your blood
Oh, oh, oh Your neck is so delicately white
Inviting my mouth for the bite
My teeth your vein
Like wine from a chalice I drink Oh, oh, oh
Sucking your blood
Oh, oh, oh
I'm sucking you, sucking you Your warm juices color my throat
What un heavenly joy
Turning yours into mine Me part of you, oh you are the wine
Sucking your blood before the night is torn
How could this ever, ever be a sin If you would pull the stake from my heart
If you would let me draw another card
Maybe the Morning Star will blind our eyes
Maybe the Morning Star will bless another night Maybe the Morning Star will blind our eyes
Maybe the Morning Star will bless another night
Me part of you, you are the wine
