Be There

Lloyd Cole

Sign your name without apology
Sign on, sign on
Keep your eye on the economy
Sign on, shine onAnd everybody knows
That this is nowhere
Everybody knows
That this is nowhere, nowhereBut you've got to be there
Yes, you've got to be right there
Yes, you've got to be there, yeahYes, you've got to be there
Man, you've got to be right there
Yes, you've got to be here, yeahBide your time milk and three sugars please
Sign on, sign on
You need a line, you need some poetry
Right on, right onAnd everybody knows
That this is nowhere
Nobody knows
That this is nowhere, oh yeahBut you've got to be there
Yes, you've got to be right there
Yes, you've got to be there, yeahBut you've got to be there
Yes, you've got to be right there
Yes, you've got to be there, yeahAnd everybody knows
That this is nowhere
Everybody knows
That this is nowhere, nowhereBut you've got to be there
Yes, you've got to be right there
Yes, you've got to be there, yeahAnd you've got to be there
Yes, you've got to be right there
Yes, you've got to be here, yeahYou've got to be right there
You've got to be right there
You've got to be right there
Right there, yeah
