

Carry Yourself

Eric Gales

I'll never walk away pretty girl
I'm in your lane you can drive girl
'Cause my keys are in the palm of your hand
'Cause I love the way you carry yourself
 My mind is set on a truthstone
 I just don't wanna live my life alone
'Cause I love the way you carry yourself
 I love the way you carry yourself
 I love the way you carry yourself
 I love the way
 I love the way you carry yourself
 The way you carry yourself
 I love the way you carry yourself
 I love the way
 I love the way you carry yourself
 Carry yourself
