She'd Give Anything

Boy Howdy

She's waiting for someone who could turn her life around someone who could make her feel the way she used to feel but he never comes she's dating but no one that she cares to talk about and all the flowers in the world don't amount to much what she wants is love

and everything to fall in love just this one time
she'd like to find
what she's been dreaming of well she could find someone to hold her but that wouldn't be enough
'cause she'd give anything
to fall in love

now she looking just like she'd rather be someplace else staring 'cross the bar lost in herself will he ever come?

she's gonna keep on making wishes she's gonna keep on being strong she won't settle for less than true love she's gonna keep on holding on

she'd give anything to fall in love in love

oh oh oh oh
