Sixteen

Ã‚Â¡Forward, Russia!

I can't read sin for what it's like
Hold inside this silence, the odds are never fair
And for all I've tried
The names were stacked against it, amnesia never canWell, for the meantime, I'll hose it down
And though it needs it, you'll still remain
An electric slave, an invisible name
Eludes this search, navigates these strutsAnd electric stairs, and this arctic haze
Will never prepare, will never prepare
For slow arms, enervated nerves
And a cross-stitched face that spits your one true nameMaybe I'm scared and I'll slight your enemies
Smite your enemies down
But this one track mind will only find
Can only find and Sepiata knew
That maybe I'm scaredOne, two, three, four, five
Six, seven, eight, nine, ten
One, two, three, four, five
Six, seven, eight, nine, tenOne, two, three, four, five
Six, seven, eight, nine, ten
One, two, three, four, five
Six, seven, eight, nine, tenOne, two, three, four, five
Six, seven, eight, nine, ten
One, two, three, four, five
Six, seven, eight, nine, tenAnd as quick as lightning
The ancient flesh was reconstructed
Cigarette burns and all, angina callsAnd the fearless pressure, and the threat of litigation
Reconstructed, cigarette burns and all, a lucky all
In the meanwhile watch your keystone falling
Cigarette burns and all, a lucky allOne, two, three, four
One, two, three, four, five
Six, seven, eight, nine, tenOne, two, three, four
One, two, three, four, five
Six, seven, eight, nine, tenLease your car but don't avoid the celebration comet
Lease your car but don't avoid the celebration comet
Slice your camel back and know in the meantimeLease your car but don't avoid the celebration comet
Slice your camel back and know in the meantimeOne, two, three, fourLease your car but don't avoid the celebration comet
Give me a wall, bury that wall and lose control
Lease your car but don't avoid the celebration comet
Trying to find a wall to look at you allLease your car but don't avoid the celebration comet

Trying to find a wall to look at you allOne, two, three, four
One, two, three, four
