7 Years

Superheist

Does it distract you, does it obstruct?
Does it control ya, add then subtract you?
(Does it distract you into a coma, into a coma?)And we'll break these ties, paralyze the lies
A blank face and a bitter taste
Goes a long, long, long, long wayIn 7 hours or 7 years
Will anyone know I don't care about circumstance
I don't care about circumstance
Not that you'll over grieveDoes it distract you, does it obstruct?
Does it control ya, add then subtract you?
(Does it distract you into a coma, into a coma?)In hypnotized, shattered lives
A blank face with a bitter taste
Goes a long, long, long, long wayIn 7 hours or 7 years
Will anyone know I don't care about circumstance
I don't care about circumstance
Not that you'll over grieveIn 7 hours or 7 years
Will anyone know I don't care about circumstance
I don't care about circumstance
Not that you'll over grieveNot that you'll over grieve
Not that you'll over grieve
