Fight Song

The Almost

Sometimes it starts with a silent curse
Sometimes it doesn't waste time
You still think I look upon this with hatred in my mind
I won't lie, It took some time
But I know one thing
It took me away from all the things love gave me
So I had to let things go
I can go another round despite you
I'm still healing
No, I'm not reeling
Yes, I'm feeling
This is my fight song
Now, I'm left with a scar to reverse
Yes, another burden to fight
I guess I made it this far so I know things will be alright
I won't lie, I will survive
I'm still healing
No, I'm not reeling
Yes, I'm feeling

This is my fight song
But I know one thing
It takes me away from
All the things love gave me
So I had to let things go
It's so hard to forget
But I must let go and begin
To live again and not give in
I figured out
I will land on solid ground
I will land on solid ground
I will go another round
I can go another round despite you
I'm still healing
No, I'm not reeling
Yes, I'm feeling
This is my fight song
