Better off Wrong

Randy Rogers Band

This might be a good time to say goodbye
But I can't think of one last thing we ain't tried
You're gonna see it your way, I'm gonna see it mine
The thought of working it all through again makes me tired
Makes me tiredBut everybody's gonna say it's a shame
Everybody's gonna lay the blame on us, for not doin' enough
They didnt have those sleepless nights
Fightin' hard to make things right
When we both know when it's this far gone
We're better off wrong, better off wrongWhenever it could've been easy, we made it tough
Tear ourselves all apart just so we could make up
After all the drama, baby, we were back at square one
But everything that could've saved us had been done
If it all said and doneBut everybody's gonna say it's a shame
Everybody's gonna lay the blame on us, for not doin' enough
They didnt have those sleepless nights
Fightin' hard to make things right
When we both know when it's this far gone
We're better off wrong, yeah, we're better off wrongBut everybody's gonna say it's a shame
Everybody's gonna lay the blame on us, for not doin' enough
They didnt have those sleepless nights
Fightin' hard to make things right
When we both know when it's this far gone
We're better off wrong, better off wrongWe're better off wrong
Yeah, we're better off wrong
