

Vintage Queen

Goldfinger

Once there was this girl I knew
She had all she could want
But her unhappiness
Preceded what she bought
She says, "Everyone around here is wasting my time"
All of her possessions couldn't make her feel fine
She wants everyone to sit around and talk about her life
Don't ask her how she feels 'cause that would be a lie
Don't tell me 'cause you know I know it hurts
Don't tell me 'cause you know it's gotten worse
Don't tell me 'cause you think
I don't know shit about the way you feel
Tell me 'cause I don't want you to hurt
She sat around like a vintage queen
To complain about the world
She says how she's so much better than you
As she's a special girl
She says, "Everyone around here is wasting my time"
All of her boyfriends couldn't make her feel fine
Don't tell me 'cause you know I know it hurts
Don't tell me 'cause you know it's gotten worse
Don't tell me 'cause you think
I don't know shit about the way you feel
Tell me 'cause I don't want you to hurt
She says, "Everyone around here is just wasted all my time"
All of her boyfriends couldn't make her feel fine
Don't tell me 'cause you know I know it hurts
Don't tell me 'cause you know it's gotten worse
Don't tell me 'cause you think
I don't know shit about the way you feel
Tell me 'cause I don't want you to hurt
Don't tell me 'cause you know I know it hurts
Don't tell me 'cause you know it's gotten worse
Don't tell me 'cause you think
I don't know shit about the way you feel
Tell me 'cause I don't want you to hurt
