

Sirens (Midnight Writing Crew

Cher Lloyd

I carry the weight of you in my heavy heart
And the wind is so icy, I am numb
I carry the weight of you heading back to start
With the thousand eyes on me, I stumble on I am tired, I'm growing older
I'm getting weaker everyday, yeah
I carry the weight of you
I carry the weight of you Lay down here
Beside me in the shallow water
Beside me where the sun is shining on us still
Lay down here
Beside me in the hallowed water
Beside me where the silver lining stays until
The sirens' calling We follow the sun down low 'til we hit the night
And you hold me so tightly
It's hard to breathe
Oh And I'm tired, I'm growing older
I'm getting weaker everyday, yeah
We follow the sun down low
We follow the sun down low Lay down here
Beside me in the shallow water
Beside me where the sun is shining on us still
Lay down here
Beside me in the hallowed water
Beside me where the silver lining stays until
The sirens' calling
The sirens' calling Yeah, I'm tired, I'm growing older
I'm getting weaker everyday, yeah
I am drowning, and you're stealing every breath
Take me away and just Lay down here
Beside me in the shallow water
Beside me where the sun is shining on us still
Lay down here
Beside me in the hallowed water
Beside me where the silver lining stays until
The sirens' calling
The sirens' calling
