All You Got

Tait

Heard you say that no one seems to care 'bout you
It's in your eyes, you think that life's unfair to you
Just give it all you got, my friend
Just give it all you got, it's not the end'Cause you oughta know, there's a reason for these changin' seasons
God only knows how much your heart can bare
So don't you let go, everybody has their up and down times
And everybody needs to know how much they're loved, my friend
So hold on, it's not the endAs I remember everything you touch would turn to gold
You have the secrets to make your grandest dreams unfold
You are the very best of us all
But the sun that rises still falls, yes you oughta know'Cause you oughta know, there's a reason for these changin' seasons
God only knows how much your heart can bare
So don't you let go, everybody has their up and down times
And everybody needs to know how much they're loved, my friend
So hold on, it's not the endIt's just a love song 'cause everybody needs a friend
And I'll be right here for you
It's just a simple prayer it's from the bottom of my heart
That he'll never let you go'Cause you oughta know, there's a reason for these changin' seasons
God only knows how much your heart can bear
So don't you let go, everybody has their up and down times
Everybody needs to know how much they're loved'Cause you oughta know, there's a reason for these changin' seasons
God only knows how much your heart can bare
So don't you let go, everybody needs to know how much they're loved
My friend, so hold on, it's not the endJust a love song
