Punks 'n' Drunks

Toxic Lab Rats

â€œTime to be a man, time to act your age"
I heard it all before, heard it all before
I don't wanna end my life living in a cage
I'm still fighting my war, fighting my war

Just a minute, let me see
Your boring life seem sad to me
Not the way I want to be

So what if I wanna spend my life like a drunk
We're all gonna die, we're all gonna die
Drinking and fighting is the way of my life
I'm not living a lie, living a lie

Just a minute, let me see
Your boring life seem sad to me
Not the way I want to be

A song for old punks
A song for old drunks
We show our love while you live
You tend to drop like flies
For all you punks
For all you drunks
We show our appreciation before you drop like flies

Fuck your standards
Iâ€™m not living a lie, living a lie
Live your standards
Drinking, fighting, snorting, kicking

Just a minute, let me see
Your boring life seem sad to me
Not the way I want to be

A song for old punks
A song for old drunks
We show our love while you live
You tend to drop like flies
For all you punks

For all you drunks
We show our appreciation before you drop like flies
