The Light (feat. Denai Moore)

SBTRKT

[Verse 1: Denai Moore]
Skin burn, my eyes hurt
And I always leave my curtains wide open
But the light never stays here, no, the light never stays
Light never stays here, stays here, stays here
And I'm drinking cold coffee
And the CD in my car still plays in me
But the light never stays here, no, the light never stays
Light never stays here, stays here, stays here[Chorus: Denai Moore]
Tell me, am I the only one?
Getting lonelier and losing love in my heart
Tell me, am I the only one?
Getting lonelier and losing love in my heart
Tell me, am I the only one?
Getting lonelier and losing love in my heart
Tell me, am I the only one?
Getting lonelier and losing love in my heart, my heart[Verse 2: Denai Moore]
[?] your noise out my window
And the wind fills all the places no one goes
But the light never stays here, no, the light never stays
Light never stays here, stays here, stays here
I feel a timer under my feet
And I can't control the way my heart beats
But the light never stays here, no, the light never stays
