Told You Once

Geoff Useless

Well I wouldn't have it any other way
Your body's fine but your mind is not ok
Well I think about some other day
My only wish is that you would stay
And I wish there was something I could do
'Cause I hate myself more than i hate youAnd I told you once
And I'll tell you twice
There is nothing in this world I would sacrifice
And I can't be real
And I can't be nice
There is nothing in this world I would sacrificeSometimes my mind feels like an ashtray
But I'm blinded by the smoke and the grey
That's just the price you have to pay
Feel like ships are gone but I feel fine today
And I wish there was somehting I could do
'Cause I hate myself more than I hate youAnd I told you once
And I'll tell you twice
There is nothing in this world I would sacrifice
And I can't be real
And I can't be nice
There is nothing in this world I would sacrifice
