Squatters Song

Total Chaos

We are the punks of L.A.
Brought together in unity
We live in the squats or a shit-hole place
But that's the only home we know
Together we take the streets
For some little chnage
If shit comes down tonight
We must throw down and fight
We must bond together
Survival is the only key
We swill some beers tonight
And hit the sheets in unity
Standing in the drinking field
Or in the drinking aisle
Getting fucked together I love this life
Keeping our head above the shit
A life you'll never understand
We are the punks of L.A.
