

The Scorn of Death's Kiss

Soul Embraced

The scorn of death's kiss
Harsh against my skin
The flesh cold, the flesh coldMy soul longs to be with thee
To dwell forever with the fatherI've longed for this day
Welcomed with open arms
To meet my GodI've longed this dayI'll watch the world end as I know it
As I'm washed with blood and crucifiedI've longed this dayI'll watch the world end as I know it
As I'm washed with blood and crucified
