

Strong In Love

Chicane

Standing here in the dim light
You can only see your soul.
No place that we can hide in, no
Your love will still unfold. By the time your sense is moving
You see
The one you lost is leading
And turning out to be
Strong in love! (Say it again.)
Strong in love! (Say it again.)
And when all your dreams have turned into dust
And your world has fallen down
You know you've got to be
Strong in love! Sunrise here in the morning
And you're lying next to me
Somewhere love is beginning
On a journey I don't know. By the time your sense is moving
You see
The one you lost is leading
And turning out to be, Strong in love! (Say it again.)
Strong in love! (Say it again.)
And when all your dreams have turned into dust
And your world has fallen down
You know you've got to be
Strong in love! (Say it again.)
Strong in love! (Say it again.)
Strong in love! (Say it again.)
Strong in love! (Say it again.)
