

Car Alarms & Sleepless Nights

Morning Parade

Car alarms
And sleepless nights
Hunt me down
Like a witchhunt
You're a twisted knife
In a stab-proof vest Across landscapes and borderlines
With your head full of aching
Cause it's drenched in wine
And you're a stairway to hell
And it hurts like
Nothing else What a show you've put on
What a blinding light
What a shade you cast
You'd skin yourself alive to keep me in your debt
Me in your debt As you douse those wounds in alcohol
Cause your broken heart has become a wrecking ball
And it's a stairway
And it hurts like
Nothing else You're a parasite Across landscapes and borderlines
With your head full of aching
Cause it's drenched in wine
And you're a stairway to hell
And it hurts like
Nothing else Would you piss on me if i were on fire?
