

Heroes

Scryed

Not gonna miss you when you're dead and gone
Not gonna talk about you over and over and over
 Not gonna file you under latest nostalgia
 Nor happily ever after
 Not gonna listen to your played out songs
 (Played out songs)
 Don't wanna think about you over and over and over
 Not gonna read about the latest fads on your trendy blog
 I want nothing to do with that
 'Cause you've made a mess of everything
 (And I'm not listening)
 You're not a hero, you're a liar
 You're not a savior, you're a vampire
 Sucking the life out of all the friends you've ever known
 You're just a train wreck, not a winner
 Up on your soapbox, preaching down to the sinners
 A saint without a cause
 We're not listening, we're not listening
 I'm gonna start a revolution
 Of convoluted disillusion
 (Start a revolution)
 I'll lead a war with no conclusion
 And in the final hour I'll be a confident coward
 'Cause if we stand for nothing
 We'll fall for anything
 You're not a hero, you're a liar
 You're not a savior, you're a vampire
 Sucking the life out of all the friends you've ever known
 You're just a train wreck, not a winner
 Up on your soapbox, preaching down to the sinners
 A saint without a cause
 We're not listening, we're not listening
 Yeah, this is moving in the same direction
 But I'm a little too spent to care
 'Cause it's a battlefield 'til it blows over
 Keep your friends close and your enemies closer
 We throw stuff but we live in glass houses
 We talk shit like it's a cross to bear
 You're only wrong until you get older

Keep your friends close and your enemies closer, enemies closer
They're gonna miss me when I'm dead and gone
They're gonna talk about me over and over and over
They're gonna file me under latest nostalgia
And happily ever after
I'm not a hero, I'm a liar
I'm not a savior, I'm a vampire
Sucking the life out of all the friends I've ever known
We're a train wreck, not winners
On a soapbox, preaching down to the sinners
Saints without a cause
We're not listening, we're not listening
We're not listening, we're not listening
