'til The End

DULO

Countdown toward the end now
No need to panic, no need to panic now
You better get yourself together somehow
Well I can't sleep and I can't relax
Climbing up the walls staring through the cracks
I've come this far I'm never turning back
Every now and again I feel it creepin' up again
And i know it's only a matter of time (your next kill)
I'm stepping on the enemy lines (your next thrill)
I'm stepping on the enemy lines
We're gonna take you to the end of the line
'Til the end, 'til the end

I'm never gonna give up- 'til the end, 'til the end
Not gonna stop until I've tried, not until I'm satisfied
Until what I want, 'til I get what I need
Until I get what I want
Now you're back against the wall
And you've made your final call
Do you have any last requests at all?
When the chips are down
And life as you know it is upside down
Pick yourself back up and turn it around
