Third Moon

Linea 77

Good morning Miss Sadness open your eyes
jumping on the ground, walkin' and waiting for that day i don't wanna loose i don't wanna choose a way to escape
'cause i wanna create what?
a fake world to describe full of winners with no smile waitin for that day i don't wanna play the game so i'm coming
i'm gonna get you soon
to the sorrow land to the third moonwatchin' the screen full of madness and freaks with a strange man talkin' about shit things i want to run faster
before i die
Follow the white rabbit it's the right way
turn off the eyes on the world that you got go out on the streets
watch the faces of all the people that you can see feel the atmosphere!
watchin' the screen full of madness and freaks
before i dieI'm floating in the space watching my world in flames the sky will never burn forever I'm waiting for that day when everything will change the sky will never burn forevergo! go! go!Follow the white rabbit

feel the atmosphere!
Taste it and break it!
It's not a joke comin' up...yo you're not alone
from the land of sorrow
the sky will never burn foreverwatchin' the screen full of madness and freaks watchin' now
with a strange man talkin' about bullshit
