

Cajun Baby

Hank Williams Jr.

Way down yonder in the bayou country in dear old Louisianne
That's where lives my Cajun baby, the fairest one in the land
Her teeth're white and pearly hair black as coal
Wouldn't trade my Cajun baby for the world's gold Way down yonder in the bayou country in dear old Louisianne My heart's been sad and lonely since the day I left her side
But today I got her letter said she'd be my Cajun bride Gonna go and wed my Cajun baby and live by the old bayou Eat a lotsa shrimp and crawfish ride around in my old pirogue Way down yonder in the bayou country in dear old Louisianne
That's where lives my Cajun baby, the fairest one in the land
Her teeth're white and pearly hair black as coal
Wouldn't trade my Cajun baby for the world's gold Way down yonder in the bayou country in dear old Louisianne Before the sun goes down this evening, I'll be on my way
To see my Cajun baby and there I'm gonna stay
On a Saturday night we go dancin' and listen to the fiddle-o
Lord I got me a Cajun baby just a livin' and a lovin' by the old bayou

Songwriters

Jr. Williams; Hank Williams Published by

SONY/ATV ACUFF-ROSE MUSIC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>