

When the Sun Rose Again

Alice in Chains

Run, run 'til you drop
Hide, everyone knows
We all trade in never before
Selling out for the score
Prey, squeal when you're caught
Cry, it's not my fault
Time to trade in never before
Selling out for the score
It seems you prophesied
All of this would end
Were you burned away
When the sun rose again?
Hate, long wearing thin
Negative all you've been
Time to trade in never before
Selling out for the score
It seems you prophesied
All of this would end
Were you burned away
When the sun rose again?
It seems you prophesied
All of this would end
Were you burned away
When the sun rose again?
