

I Can Tell

Dr. Feelgood

I can tell because it's plain to see
I can tell the way you look at me
The way that you smile when you hold my hand
I know, pretty baby, 'cause I understandI can tell, I can tell
I know you don't love me no moreGonna tell your mama, gonna tell your papa too
Just what more can a good man do
You've been running 'round with Joey Brown, yeah, yeah
I know, pretty baby, that you put me downI can tell, I can tell
I know you don't love me no more, yeah, no more, yeah
That's right babyI'm glad I called you up on the telephone
You know, baby, a strange voice tells me that you're not home
[Incomprehensible] you can wait, ah yeah
When you show up, you know you're draggin' real lateI can tell, I can tell
I know you don't love me no more, yeah
