Love Ain't Easy (feat. Kyle Olthoff)

Austin Speed

So you think you can dance, well itâ€™s my fault I never shoulda taken your hand, I had my feet posted up deep inside of the sand, now their in the dirt and all that I got is an empty bag in my hand, cause the syringe was full, but now itâ€™s all gone your love was like a drug for me till I saw that you moved on, and all I got is this song, to keep me going, I thought I had a way a reaching but never did knowin, that youâ€™d be breakin my trust, and Iâ€™d b chasing your lust, and every single time weâ€™d talk again weâ€™d fight and we cuss but, relationships must be a fadi with seasons Iâ€™m praying to god above that he can only give me a reason to move on, to move on,
And it was jacked all the things that you said, come on you knew all the words to get inside of my head, when I was praying for peace but your bullets were lead, and then you got me strung out before you left me for dead, but now Iâ€™m fighting thru all of this pain that Iâ€™m feelin, Iâ€™m hittin with my hands Iâ€™m killin on a every c now Iâ€™m sitting back talking to my god for a reason a reason

Love ainâ€™t easy love ainâ€™t free
Love ainâ€™t lying and love and cheat
So what you wanna do hurtin fo child
You got the power to control yo mind
Get up off a those knees
You ainâ€™t gonnna find no love in those streets
Maybe what you gotta do you gotta get up off a those knees and get

Back to the beat back to the track
Every single word you said you cannot take it back and I feel Iâ€™m living proof that this world feels pain, I hope it cuts you deeper every time you hear my name, cause I was feeling bad I was feeling low, your arms were the only place to run to for some hope, but until you cut me out with all the anger and the hate, always rolling on my heart like itâ€™s a motherfucking game, but now Iâ€™m feeling good, now Iâ€™m feeling straight, Iâ€™m hittin just tryna get a little cake and I got all my hopes and my dreams, and every thing that I see is gonna come back to me and now I finally got a reason move on, to move on

Love ainâ€™t easy love ainâ€™t free
Love ainâ€™t lying and love and cheat
So what you wanna do hurtin fo child
You got the power to control yo mind
Get up off a those knees
You ainâ€™t gonnna find no love in those streets
Maybe what you gotta do you gotta get up off a those knees and get back to the beat
