You Don`t Have To Go

Derailers

It wouldn't be right for you to leave me
Our love has traveled such a long way
I'd almost understand if it was raining
But darling, it's such a sunny dayYou don't have to go, begging you to stay
My love for you grows stronger every day
See it in my eyes, feel it in my heart
It's a rainbow in the sky, let's make a brand new startYour bags are packed, you ain't going nowhere
I can't let you go without a kiss
Before you close the door, I hope you change your mind
Without you my darling, my life's an awful messYou don't have to go, begging you to stay
My love for you grows stronger every day
See it in my eyes, feel it in my heart
A rainbow in the sky, let's make a brand new startTraeme tu calor, te ruego otra vez
No me dejes solo, me muere de querer
Mirame amor, mira mi razon
Sin ti me quedo triste, se me quebra el corazon
Sin ti me quedo triste, se me quebra el corazon
Sin ti me quedo triste, se me quebra el corazon
