

Over My Shoulder

Pinegrove

quick shadow dribbling down me i'm looking over my shoulder justifying anything's easy like, you look when you hear a soundsomebody once told me
"loosen up your eyes
because it feels nice"
then no more on that subject i blindly led you on & me in the process thick pupil dilating quietly i'm looking over my shoulder just if i'm within the interstices then i'm looking for when you come 'round somebody once told me
"loosen up your eyes
because it feels nice"
but then no more on that subject i blindly led you on & me in the processdon't ask how my day was, don't ask anything else (Where did all the time go? // Where'd you put my suitcase?)
