We All Will

The Veer Union

We all will rise from the fall
We all will, we all will
We all will rise from the fall
We all will, we all willWe all will, we all will
We all will, we all willWe've been sleeping underwater
In stillness we remain
But we will find another
Way to breathe again
Facing the final low
With fire inside we've never known
Awaken the silent soul
Now we can never let it go
Been waiting for so long
Been waiting for no one
Cause what this life is all about
Is what we live or live without
We should have been
We could have been someone
Should have been
We're gonna be somethingWe all will rise from the fall
We all will, we all will
We all will rise from the fall
We all will, we all will
Through the sadness we have suffered
All the pills can't numb the pain
So let's stand beyond the others
Before we meet our graves
Facing the final low
With fire inside we've never known
Awaken the silent soul
Now we can never let it goBeen waiting for so long
Been waiting for no one
Cause what this life is all about
Is what we live or live without
We should have been
We could have been someone
Should have been
We're gonna be somethingWe all will rise from the fall
We all will, we all will

We all will rise from the fall
We all will, we all will
We all will rise from the fallStripped from the bone is what we've been
But we'll take it back in the endWe all will rise from the fall (Been waiting for so long)
We all will rise from the fall (Been waiting for no one)
We all will rise from the fall (We've been sleeping underwater)
We all will, we all will (In stillness we remain)
We all will rise from the fall
We all will, we all will
We all will rise from the fall
We all will, we all will
We all will rise from the fall
We all will, we all will
We all will, we all will.
