

Hot Tequila Brown

Jamiroquai

How many times
Can a man watch the sun rise
Over his head without feeling free?
How many words
Will fail me in my negligence
To arrest, oh yes, this crazy part of me?
How many fools
Will I let unlock the door to my heart
When I know that know that
They shouldn't have had the key?
It's been so long
And the groove in my heart's nearly gone
Oh, my head's in the clouds
But I'm landing on my feet
Don't shoot me down
(Sun shine, shine down)
I'm hot tequila brown
Don't shoot me down
I'm stone cold but I'm lying here, you know
(Sun shine, shine down)
How many lives
Will I lose on the battle lines
Inside the mind?
I think I've had enough
Don't shoot me down
All I want is to see
My black eyes turn back to brown
Cross that Rubicon
I think I really must
Don't shoot me down
(Sun shine, shine down)
I'm hot tequila brown
Don't shoot me down
I'm stone cold but I'm lying here, you know
(Sun shine, shine down)
Don't shoot me down
(Sun shine, shine down)
I'm hot tequila brown
Don't shoot me down

I'm stone cold but I'm lying here, you know
(Sun shine, shine down)
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down, down
Don't shoot me down
I'm hot tequila brown
Don't shoot me down
I'm stone cold but I'm lying here, you know
(Sun shine, shine down)
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
(Don't shoot me down)
Sun shine, shine down
(I'm hot tequila brown)
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
(Don't shoot me down)
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
(Don't shoot me down)
Sun shine, shine down
(I'm hot tequila brown)
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
(Don't shoot me down)
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
Sun shine, shine down
(Don't shoot me down)
