

Window To The World (LP Version)

Geddy Lee

I've gone flying, trying to reach you
You've been hiding, riding me to a state like this Give me that window to,
Give me that window to,
Give me that window to the world We are sailing, flailing through the ether
You've been trailing, failing me with you're View of bliss Give me that window to,
Give me that window to,
Give me that window to the world A little more than this,
A little less than that,
You've got magic in your hands A little more like this,
A little less like that,
I've got magic in my hands You've conspired, inspired me to Find a place like this Give me that window to,
Give me that window to,
Give me that window to the world
