Don't Touch Me

Robert Cray

Don't touch me, baby
No
Just leave me alone
Because the way you treat me, baby
You know that's wrongI'm leavin' you, baby
Gonna hit that highway
Back homeWhen I took you off the streets
And gave you everything that I had
When I ask you for some love, baby
You haul off and get madI'm gone, baby
Hey, baby
Gonna hit that highway
Back homeNow check this out
You don't appreciate
Not one thing that I do
And you're always talking about
How you and I are through
You take all my money
And you take it with so much pride
Baby, you
Darling I know that you're never satisfiedI'm leavin' you baby
And there's no need to cry, no
I'm gonna grab my coat and put on my hat
And wave you bye-byeI'm gone, baby
Hey, baby
Gonna hit that highway
Back homeWell, I'm leavin' you, baby
Oh, there's no need to cry
When I grab my coat and put on my hat
It's just to say bye-byeI'm gone, baby
Hey, baby
Gonna hit that highway
Back home
