

Music for Carnivores

P.M. Dawn

You'll hear tales
Of all the great pretenders
Then it comes to you You'll spend hours
Practicing your smile
Then it comes to you You'll be so deceived by the peaceful life
You'll spend all your worth
Trying to be an angel
And then it comes to you They don't feel the way you feel
They don't know that they hurt you
You forgive them for what they do You get nothing, nothing
You get nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing
You get nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing You will dream
All there is to dream
Then it comes to you You will lose your mind
Trying to be the nice guy
Then it comes to you And when you're overwhelmed by How apathetic we are
You'll feel powerless as you crucify your patience
Then it comes to you They don't feel the way you feel
They don't know that they hurt you
You forgive them for what they do You get nothing
Oh, you get nothing And I'm not afraid
And I'm not afraid
And I'm not afraid
...
