

Valentine

Ryan Leslie

Yeah, valentine, be mine

Valentine

I don't have to say you're beautiful
You've got plenty other guys to say those words for you
And I don't have to say you run the show
All it takes is a word, I lose control for you
I know you're not my girlfriend but
I swear that I love you, baby, I do
I know you're not my girlfriend but
I swear that I love you, baby, I do
I don't have to say you stole my heart
'Cause anything I have I freely give to you
And I knew right from the very start
That the only place I belong is next to you
I know you're not my girlfriend but
I swear that I love you, baby, I do
I know you're not my girlfriend but
I swear that I love you, baby, I do
Even through all the ups and downs
You can't stop the way I feel now
Even through the storm, joy and pain
I won't change, still feel the same
Anytime you call I don't care, no matter the reason
I'll be there constantly on my mind
And that's why I'm hoping you will be my valentine
Valentine, be mine, valentine
I know you're not my girlfriend but
I swear that I love you, baby, I do
I know you're not my girlfriend but
I swear that I love you, baby, I do
I know you're not my girlfriend but
I swear that I love you, baby, I do
I know you're not my girlfriend but
I swear that I love you, baby, I do
And I know you love me too
I swear that I love you, yes I do
I swear that I love you, yes I do
