

I'm Ready (prod. DT Spacely)

Mac Miller

A-yo! I'm ready for whatever this world brings to me
I'm ready for the night, I'm ready for tomorrow
Whatever's after that you feel me?, lets get it
We stay fly new clothes on smoking on that drake till im so far gone
I'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready
Baby girl you fly but we got away lets take a drive by need to get away
I'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready
Ain't a damn thing change i'm happy to get away leavin shawty's in the morning she's grabbing on me to stay
I'm ready for the next day, just text me, she said i hit it out the park like feinway
Aye its just one nights work after stay up late and sleeping in my shirt
Girl i gotta leave now i need to get to work im a young heart breaker believe me its a curse
But hey i stay focused cause the money comes first, but my real life situations i throw em in the verse
That's the formula of the truth its more than what i do im exploring it for the proof Who am i? Mother fucker who are you? Don't be asking questions you should know the answer to,
You should know my name don't forget me bout to take over the game i'm ready
We stay fly new clothes on smoking on that drake till im so far gone
I'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready
Baby girl you fly but we got away lets take a drive by need to get away
I'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready
Uh yeah i'm ready to have the glory i'm ready to have the name, i'm ready to have the fortune, i'm ready to have the fame
When i get up in the game it's never gon be the same, those to dumb to notice tell em to use their brain
I spend a whole day on the cloud firetrucks comin through tryin to get me down
Mom say she proud cause im stickin to my dreams, get myself out head to big and better things
It's the high life boy i live the fly life honey's want my number cause i rhyme nice, aint that some shit she gave her girl the camera sayin can we have a pic, click so let us speak a thousand words shawty says she want me cause im down to earth, aha its all gravy you won't forget me cause im headed to the top, i'm ready
We stay fly new clothes on soakin on that drake till im so far gone
I'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready
Baby girl you fly why we got away lets take a drive by need to get away i
'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready, i'm ready
