Tickle Me Twice

STAMPEAD

tickle me twice I might laugh once hold me too close I might throw a punch meet me down by the kissing post weâ€™ll make the most of sad, sad eyes everybody claim your cloud now this oneâ€™s yours, this oneâ€™s mine yes we can share it but you know itâ€™s still mine

I say everybody spot your star now everybody claim a cloud everybody stand tall try to make your mother proud

Iâ€™d like to preach and plant apple seeds like the greatest of men but you know I know I just canâ€™t pretend so I sing you what I wonder as I quickly claim my cloud and Iâ€™m laughing when you tickle if the kissing posts around and it all may seem like nonsense these words that flow so sweet if the tickle makes you laugh donâ€™t try to hide your feet

at the post we will meet
donâ€™t try to hide your feet
