L.A.

Leighton Meester

As it wasn't enough that I was always there for you
I will always wait
It's a sunny day I built a house for you
I've gotten my own car
I've gotten my own style
I've gotten older, see?
I've gotten lovely friends, I have lovely friends but nothing's freeSo I wonder
I'm living in LA won't you call sometime?
Waking up and smiling times
You make me fall out of line
And into loveEvery time I think about the way I used to laugh
Swimming in the sun
If there's only room for one I'd give you half
I'm having my own fun, looking out for number one
I'm having parties, see?
I've gotten lonely friends but they are only friends means nothing to meSo I wonder
I'm living in LA won't you call sometime?
Waking up and smiling times
You make me fall out of line
And into loveI'm calling, calling to say I don't care
I'm calling, I'm calling to say that I wish you were here
If you were hereI'm living in LA won't you call sometime?
Waking up and smiling times
You make me fall out of line
And into love
You make me fall out of line
And into love
