

G.I. Josephine

Felt

(yea, man...all you fuckin Private Pyle muthafuckas, man you gotta step ya game up, man but first, iron your uniform, you know get your shit together when approaching a superior officer you can't come wit no bullshit, man like, you're severely outranked)

(Chorus)

She can make moves and pay dues Friday, it's time to break loose She can pace, mind the baselines drum beats, completes the play time She standin up and you can't interrupt til she danced enough She a soldier out here she make a little mix, let em know she out here

Verse 1:

(Slug)

We call her G.I. Josephine, standin in line even though she could climb throught the opening she got the doorman under a spell, knowin damn well she could have him livin out her hand if she felt it's alright, cause when she gets inside she'll have a room full of dudes do the Electric Slide, haha she got a lotta attitude, but it's never rude she keeps a level mood, it helps to get her through the work week, makes her thirsty crash the party and jack the body til it hurts feet reach ya peak, try to tire the physique cause she been takin friendly fire all week she where the sidewalk ends she stops ya pace, you try to talk, make friends then poof, she's gone, but nope, you're wrong she's in the corner by herself singin a soldier song, it goes

(Chorus)

Verse 2:

(MURS)

She got her hair done, and her 'go get em' dress on big girl shit, manicure, no press on she 'bout to do it y'all, she steppin out she kissed the babies on the cheek right before she left the house they know she loves em, but this is her night since she been a mom, she only been out twice it's only right that she get to do her thang she called up the girls and she rounded up the gang and when she steps in it's bam, yes ma'am she usually a stunner, but in that dress DAMN Stacey Dash and Phylicia Rashad timeless booty, given grace from God she makin it hard to look away but you dudes be cool, she wasn't lookin at you anyway shootin down all the bullshit that you shoot her the girl is a trooper, stand up, salute her

(Chorus) x2
