

Let Me Make Something In Your Life

Steve Winwood

Sometimes it's hard to express what you feel
While trying to say the things that are real
I don't wanna fight 'cause fighting just brings pain
Just wanna hold you in my loving arms again
Let me see the sunlight shining in your eyes
Touch the wind and feel blue sky
I've had all I can tell all your troubles and strife
Let me make something
Let me make something in your life
Sometimes I catch myself talking loud
While turning around I get lost in a crowd
Then all my thoughts is being scared and get lost
'Cause I paid for my freedom a too bad cost
Let me see the sunlight shining in your eyes
Touch the wind and feel blue sky
I've had all I can tell all your troubles and strife
Let me make something
Let me make something in your life
I've been so lonely and I've been so blue
But without you, there's nothing I can do
Why can't we try and make amends?
We used to be good friends, why, why not now?
I don't want to lose you, we don't have to say goodbye
Why can't we try and make amends?
We used to be good friends, why, why not now?
I don't want to lose you, we don't have to say goodbye

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>