Scream Team

Deerhoof

Guiding you, a voice is coming from behind the stage.
Finding you, a voice is found on a missing page.
Winding through, a plot controller from another age.Pulling the cord of mystery.
Cheating a clock.
Meeting a team from history.A stranger's face is seen,
But was he on our team?
The lights go out and everybody screamed, "team."
A friend who was a foe.
The quarter whistle is about to blow.
Then I go.Tunnel underground-
Enter sideways, reaching all around.
In the darkness I will not be found.Invisible people doing the wave.
Invisible people doing the wave.
Invisible people doing the wave.
