

Ego Death

Kopek

So here you go, he run through the door
I'll show you something that you ain't seen before
So here you are, one to despise
I got a fever right behind these eyes

Come give me what I need, before I start to scream
Come give me what I need, before I start to scream
I wanna catch some more
And everything we own, feeling like give me some

So here I am, I'm the new sensation
Spreading all over, I'mma too overrun
So open up if you needed a taste
'Cause what I got for you, you could not be replace

Come give me what I need, before I start to scream
I wanna catch some more
And everything we own, feeling like give me some

Come give me what I need, before I start to scream
I wanna catch some more
