DIIV

Bleached black from the smile on a glimpse of your face yeah I ran to her blame it on me that inevitable date you remember her.
Im putting it off and I cant control fate but were similar I blame it on you cause that side of me I hate but you were never hurt.
Im putting it off and I cant control fate yeah I ran to her blame it on me that inevitable date but you were never hurt.
(Im listening through tapes for a lash of your face)
