

Everything Will Be Alright Tomorrow

Faithless

Should you hear somebody cry
"The end is nigh", don't you buy that line
Tomorrow's always yesterday
Love's yet to have its day and you got all the time
Planes crashin', trains crashin'
People droppin' bombs
Nothing new, what go come around
Now child it won't be long
Keep pickin' up
Everythin' will be alright tomorrow
Keep pickin' up
Hey you, yea you don't let it get to you
Stressin' you, it's what they want you to do
Smile a while even though it hurts, even though it hurts
Come on let 'em know they'll be no breakin' you
Love's gonna come around again
And again and again and on
Nothin' new that go come around
Now child it won't be long
Keep pickin' up
Everythin' will be alright tomorrow
Keep pickin' up
