

Saviour

Inez

Somewhere between my sleep
Somewhere beneath my skin
 In places I can't see
Something is known to be a sin
 Hiding inside my eyes
 Burning from deep within
 Something that needs a lie
 Trying to turn into a sin
 Rescue me before I lose control
 Rescue me from this fire in my soul
There's only you who can stop me from falling
 I need a saviour, need my saviour
 Rescue me before I lose my head
 Rescue me from the sight of regret
'Cause only your love can stop me from wanting
 I need a saviour, you're my saviour

Knocking behind my door
 Asking to be let in Something I have ignored
 Wanting to be a sin
It's been around for so long
 And waiting to begin
 I know that it's so wrong
 Can't let it be a sin
 Rescue me before I lose control
 Rescue me from this fire in my soul
There's only you who can stop me from falling
 I need a saviour, need my saviour
 Rescue me before I lose my head
 Rescue me from the sight of regret
'Cause only your love can stop me from wanting
 I need a saviour, you're my saviour
