

What a Woman in Love Won't Do

Sandy Posey

When you drag in the sunrise
All over your feet
I never asked you where you been
I always let you sleep late
And bring your breakfast baby in bed

Lord, What I want a little love won't do

At times I've caught you lying With your bare face hanging out but I just couldn't follow through I just be proven that you being untrue

Lord, What I want a little love won't do

What makes me keep on but enough with this
What keeps me kneeling underneath my master's kiss
Could it be, that I'm leavin
About being untrue too like you

Lord, what I want a little love won't do...
And love won't do...
And love won't do...
