

Sleepless Nights

Faber Drive

Another sleepless night
And still staring at the ceiling
I can hear him fighting with her
For no good reason Will this ever end?
Will this house be a home again?
If I had my way
I'd corner him and say Put yourself in her position
All she needs is recognition
Love's not enough when you say it
Don't you know you gotta mean it? Screwing up the best thing ever
Is something you'll regret forever Another day goes by
And nothing's changed
She's still the same
I can hear her crying
Thinking she's the one to blame Will this ever end?
Will this house be a home again?
If I had my way
I'd corner him and say Put yourself in her position
All she needs is recognition
Love's not enough when you say it
Don't you know you gotta mean it? Screwing up the best thing ever
Is something you'll regret forever Take her and make sure she feels it
Let her know you'll never let her go Screwing up the best thing ever
Is something you'll regret forever Another sleepless night
And nothing's changed
She's still the same
Another stupid fight a
Ad someone's gotta say Put yourself in her position
All she needs is recognition
Love's not enough when you say it
Don't you know you gotta mean it? Screwing up the best thing ever
Is something you'll regret forever Take her and make sure she feels it
Let her know you'll never let her go You'll never let her go
No, no, no Put yourself in her position
All she needs is recognition
Take her and make sure she feels it
Let her know you'll never let her go
