Breaking Point

Eric Clapton

Well I just don't get it, can't make the pieces fit
I might just as well forget it, but my heart won't let me quit
You say it's only a part of love, that's right
But I get a little worried sometimes when I start to lose
Tired of holding it together, when I know I'm going to blow another fuse
I'm at my breaking point, at my breaking point
I'm at my breaking point, at my breaking point
Well you're never gonna get it, if you don't get up and try
Try and spread those wings around me, honey let me see you fly
You say it's only a part of love, that's right
But I get a little worried sometimes when I start to lose
Tired of holding it together, when I know I'm going to blow another fuse
I'm at my breaking point, I'm at my breaking point
I'm at my breaking point, my breaking point
I'm at my breaking point, my breaking point
Maybe someday you'll recover, I can see it in your eyes
One more thing that you'll discover, that you'll finally realize
I'm at my breaking point, my breaking point
I'm at my breaking point, at my breaking point
I'm at my breaking point, my breaking point
I'm at my breaking point, my breaking point
I'm at my breaking point, my breaking point
I'm at my breaking point, I'm at my breaking point
